DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

WAR UPON WOMEN.

A SCOUNDREL WELL EXPOSED.

BLOODHOUND JULIAN DUMFOUNDED FOR ONCE.

[Special Correspondence Baltimore Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—This has been another interesting day, and the developments will furnish material for the Presidential campaign which must make great havoc of the Jacobins. It was surmised yesterday that Miss Vinnie Ream, the young and accomplished female sculptor, who has had her studio for some months in the basement of the Capitol, had fallen under the displeasure of the bloodhounds of the Radical party, but the facts why and wherefore had not transpired. It was even intimated that one of the cells proposed to be fitted up by direction of the "managers" was for her special accommodation. To day the facts came to light, and in a way to reach and arouse the indignation of the whole country. The speech of General Morgan, of Ohio, was not only classical and thrilling, but it produced a scene in the Representative Hall not soon to be forgotten. The Committee of "Managers" had been authorized to pursue their investigations, ostensibly with a view to ferret out some supposed corruptions. It was regarded unfair as well as unparliamentary to refuse the Democrats a representation on the committee, but few, however, had suspected the immediate cause of this refusal—few had suspected the corruption and infamy which attached to the managers or their immediate backers. "Murder will out," and the exposure made to-day of the transactions of several radical members of the House brought the Jacobins to their feet. The eloquent efforts of Mr. Eldridge and the production of legal authorities showing that Colonel Woolley was not in contempt of the House passed unheeded.—The appeal of Col. Woolley himself to be protected against the insults and oppression of Butler excited only a smile upon the iron countenances on the Radical side of the hall, but when General Morgan opened his masked battery upon them he woke Butler up as he has not been woke since he discovered the masked battery of the Rebels at Big Bethel. General Morgan said he could account for the persistent refusal of the Radicals to allow a Democrat on this committee. They did not dare to permit it, as the result would be an exposure of themselves, and begged to refer only to a single transaction, among many, which could be proven. A Republican member, whom he was pleased to see was then in his seat, had gone to Miss Vinnie Ream and charged her with having attempted to influence Senator Ross to vote for the acquittal of the President; she denied the charge, saying she had never spoken to Senator Ross on the subject. The honorable (?) member then demanded that she should exercise her influence over that Senator to induce him to vote for conviction. This she also declined doing, as she was not disposed to mix herself up in the matter. The honorable member then threatened her, saying it would be the worse for her, or it would be the ruin of her, if she refused. She did refuse, and on Thursday the threatened punishment overtook her. The Radicals ordered her to leave the building, and had all of her statuary thrown out, by which a valuable work was broken to pieces. General Morgan having completed his narrative, a demand was made on the Democratic side for the name of the member who had threatened Miss Ream with Radical vengeance if she did not do their infamous bidding. Morgan said if the member himself would call for the name he would give it promptly, but no man said a word. They hung their heads in humiliation. Again it was demanded that Morgan should give the "State." He said the member alluded to was from the gallant State of Indiana. The scent then became too warm to stop the chase. A member from Indiana arose and asked if he was the party alluded to.—Then another and another followed with the same enquiry, until it became evident that the guilty party would soon be caught. Finally the immaculate Julian was forced to his feet, and, in a tone of refreshing innocence, asked: "Am I the member alluded to?" With a profound bow, Gen. Morgan responded: "I referred to the distinguished gentleman, Mr. Julian, of Indiana, and Miss Vinnie is the witness ready to swear to the facts." Julian seemed to stagger under the blow, and the whole party felt the damning exposure. While professing to expose corruption it was crushing to be thus exposed themselves. Julian is one of the Jacobin bloodhounds with a keenness of scent second only to Butler's. It was perhaps fortunate for the young lady that she was scented out by Julian rather than by Butler, for the sake of her reputation. Butler did her the credit to-day to say he did not know her.

Correspondence of the New York Herald.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

WASHINGTON, May 30, 1868.

Sufficient time has now elapsed since the Chicago Convention to speak of the effect of the nominations made there and the political prospect as viewed from this central point.

The ticket has fallen flat and produced no impression whatever. There are various reasons for this fact, but the main one is the identification of General Grant with the radical wing of the party and his full acceptance of all their policy, including impeachment, which he advocated openly and even violently, as is well known here and as General Logan and Mr. Judd, of Illinois, emphatically declared at Chicago.

General Grant went over to the radicals and abandoned his previous conservative tendencies last October, at which time Washburne came to Washington to arrange the programme, and General Rawlings was sent West to make a speech revealing his Chief's conversion to the doctrines of Thad. Stevens and the "Mountain."

Ever since that time he has been losing ground, and now is even weaker than the party. Because it is admitted that he brings no outside strength and excites no interior enthusiasm, while old and straight laced republicans will bolt his nomination as an abandonment of principle.

It is absurd to suppose that Colfax adds a particle of influence to the concern. Any ward politician would be equally strong, and he is of the dimensions of a ward politician, only raised in the country. There are tens of thousands of the same class and genus scattered over the Union, many of whom are vastly superior to the individual whose smirking mediocrity occupies the chair once filled by Henry Clay.

The radicals relied upon the success of impeachment as their last and only hope of carrying the Presidential election. That defeated, they substantially admit the game to be lost. Their plan was for Stanton to organize the whole South into a compact radical column, to declare martial law in Kentucky and Maryland under some fabricated pretext, in order to exclude their votes, and then by coercion and corruption to secure enough of the East and West to count themselves into power. This scheme required the aid of Wade to make it a success. With Johnson in the White House it falls to the ground, and with it all the hopes of the revolutionists.

Disguise it as they may, the Wade men are intensely indignant, and will do little to help the ticket. Their chief has given no such endorsement as is pretended by the radical organs. On the contrary, he swears like "our army in Flanders," and says that he was sold out. It is notorious that the Southern delegates, who were lodged to him, were lodged by the New York jobbers at various rates, and many of them as cheap as the payment of their hotel bills. This open bargain and sale is now urged here as a reason against the admission of those States by many extremists, and, if their votes were not counted upon in November, they would not be allowed to come in at all.

It is now conceded by leading and competent radicals that Pennsylvania is lost by a large majority; first, because of the failure of impeachment; second, because the Convention did not expressly and by name excommunicate the seven Senators who secured acquittal, and, thirdly, because of the insulting and intentional omission of any reference to protection or "home industry." That State is now demanding an increase of the tariff, and the foremost politicians have written here that without it there is no use of attempting a canvass.—But as Congress has no idea of touching the tariff, finance or any other large question at this session, Pennsylvania is gone "hook and line."

The democrats and conservatives will probably nominate Hancock and Hendricks, at New York, on the Fourth of July. They are both strong, able and free from objections which have been urged, justly or unjustly, against other candidates. It is imperatively necessary to choose the best men and those most likely to challenge popular favor and confidence.

A very kind and even grateful feeling is entertained towards Chief Justice Chase and the Senators who contributed to defeat impeachment, but they do not claim to have renounced their political affiliations or to have adopted the views and policy of their opponents. Quite the contrary.—They defend their position by saying impeachment was not a party question, but a judicial one, and therefore that no separation was involved.

If it were at all probable under such circumstances, as it is not, to offer either the Chief Justice or any of the Senators, who took more responsibility than he did, a place on the ticket to be named at New York, it would serve to raise a clamor and to give ground for the false assumption, already spread abroad, that acquittal was a matter of arrangement and of corrupt collusion. None of these distinguished men could afford to take office on such terms.—They have a higher and better reward now in the respect and gratitude of the nation.

A post mortem examination of the remains of the late radical party will be held at the Capitol this evening, when measures will be taken for the interment. Wade, Wilson, Fenton, Hamlin, Stanton and Curtin are announced as pall bearers, together with Grant and Colfax as chief mourners.

Stanton is furious at the contempt shown to him by the Chicago Convention, where there was none so poor (not even a carpet bag delegate) as to do him reverence. Like Woolsey, he is saddened by ingratitude.—Alas, poor Stanton!! Not even the cheap compliment of a resolution of thanks for such hard fidelity to party, and so much sacrifice of self-respect. He will now get a place in the Freedman's Bureau, for which he is eminently qualified, and will doubtless find it very comfortable in the hot and sweltering days of August to be so intimately associated with his African brethren.

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY
OF THE WAR,
ITS CAUSES, CHARACTER, CONDUCT AND RESULTS.
By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.
A BOOK FOR ALL SECTIONS AND ALL PARTIES.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS THE ONLY complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens, from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare both agreeable and salutary, and as intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire everywhere manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

One Agent in Eastout, Pa., reports 72 subscribers in three days.
One in Boston, Mass., 103 subscribers in four days.
One in Memphis, Tenn., 106 subscribers in five days.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1868

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

The exigencies of the country are so alarming, and the interests of constitutional freedom in this "Republic" are so imminently jeopardied by the extravagant and ultra views of the party in power, that we conceive every true American, every friend of written Constitutions and of order and good government, is bound by the highest religious, moral and patriotic obligations, to exert himself to prop the trembling pillars of civil liberty and for the speedy restoration of the Constitution. For the last seven years, the party in power has hypocritically pretended, first, to make war upon the South, to save the Union, and, since the clash of arms has been over, it has kept up the war upon us, to restore the Union.—The hollowness of that profession has been rendered perfectly transparent, by the history of that party. It is now palpable that the objects of the war, both before 1861 and since, have been to subvert and destroy the Constitution, without which the Union is a rope of sand.

This party had its origin in hostility to the Constitution, to the government of our fathers, and nothing else. Its first pratlings breathed the venom and the evil intent of the Radical party, when its then and now chief leaders declared our Constitution to be "a league with hell and a covenant with the devil."

The real gist of the present contest, therefore, between the Radical party, on the one hand, and the Democratic and Conservative masses, on the other, is not a mere question of party or of power. Mercenary, selfish, corrupt or ignorant men may so regard it. But such an idea is a mere pretence. The true question at issue is the preservation or destruction of the Constitution—whether we shall have a government of Federal States, united by a Constitution defining the rights and powers both of the State and the Federal Governments, or whether we shall make an abortive attempt at a Republic, with imperial centralized powers, without any other organic law to restrain it than the will of the people, as expressed by their representatives in Congress. The Radical party is the patron and advocate of this latter form of government, and Grant and Colfax are put up as the executors of that will, or rather the will of Congress. The merest tyro in history can not doubt the ultimatum of such an attempt, if successful. On the other hand, the Democratic party claims to be the party of the Constitution, the real conserver of the Union and the Government, and to aim at the restoration of the fundamental principles of the Constitution, as understood by the fathers of the Republic,

No intelligent, generous, sound-minded Southern man can hesitate between which to choose. Cowardly, traitorous, selfish, money-loving, office-seeking Southern white men, devoid of principle, believing that the Radical party will triumph over the Constitution, will, after having sung the praises of that instrument for scores of years and swearing to support it, offer that party no resistance, but will crouch at its feet and wallow in its filth, to get "the loaves and fishes," at the sacrifice of honor, truth and manhood. But every true-hearted man of the South will rally to the standard of the Constitution and of civil liberty, and contest every inch of ground against the invaders of the Constitution.

The South is not, therefore, concerned as to the banner-bearers of the phalanx, pledged to support the Constitution. It will stand by whoever may be designated for the posts of honor. It is in for a contest of principle, the nation's honor and for the perpetuity of the great cabous of fundamental law and of Magna Charta. It will win with the party of the Constitution and of civil liberty, or it will go down battling against anarchy and despotism. All it asks of the great North is to give it a platform that it can stand upon and feel secure. Whether Pendleton, or Hancock, or any other leaders, may be selected by the Democracy of the North, the South—the true South,—will march to the tune of the "Constitution, liberty and the laws," to victory or disaster!

WHEN THE "GENERAL of our Armies" was serenaded, some nights since, he volunteered the entirely superfluous information that he did not know how to speak,—meaning, probably, that he had nothing to say.

It would appear, from his letter of acceptance of the Chicago nomination, which was communicated by telegraph, on yesterday, that the "General of our Armies," even with the assistance of Washburne and the Dictionary, knows as little how to write.—We have never known a document, elaborated for an important occasion, so utterly namby-pamby and meaningless. Premising that it was proper, in formally accepting the nomination, that he should express "some statement of views," he proceeds to indulge in a few platitudes and generalities unworthy of a candidate for a County Sheriffalty, much less an aspirant for the highest office in the gift of the American people. It is not up to the level of his "horse-talk."

WENDELL PHILLIPS is even more than usually ferocious in his denunciation of the Republican action at Chicago. Neither the nominations made, nor the resolutions adopted, at all satisfy or please him. He brands the whole affair as a cowardly surrender—both the candidates as unreliable, and the general attitude of the party as a betrayal of the negro.

ADMISSION OF ARKANSAS.

The telegraph announced, on yesterday, the passage of the Arkansas Bill through the Senate, by a vote of 34 to 8. We are, as yet, without particulars, and, therefore, are unable to account for the smallness of the vote. We have not, at any time, doubted that all the Southern States would be admitted under the bogus Constitutions, in due time for the Presidential election. A different policy would amount to a complete stultification (though that would be nothing remarkable in itself) of the Radical Congress. After having engineered the States through the Reconstruction chrysalis, by a process that was designed to Radicalize and niggerize them, by fair means or foul, and without regard to the will of a majority of the people, we never dreamed that they would ignore the miserable fruits which they have produced. The President will probably veto the bill, and it will be passed over the veto, by the necessary two-thirds.

Accordingly, we expect, within a fort night, to witness the adoption of the Omnibus, in which North Carolina is to ride towards the fold. When it shall have passed, the order convening the Legislature will be issued. But here comes in that frightful "obstruction to reconstruction," the ironclad. How is the Legislature to meet? It is well known that, outside of the negroes, perhaps not twenty in both houses can take the test-oath, without perjury. How is the Howard Amendment to be ratified? Who, as matters stand, is to be Governor? Neither Holden nor Ted Caldwell can take the oath, there is no speaker of the Senate, and Governor Worth will be functus officio. The removal of disabilities, even if accomplished cotemporaneously with the passage of the Omnibus, cannot affect the inability of these men to swallow the oath. Are we to have an interregnum,—a Constitution without an officiary,—a Government without a head? But these are difficulties in which we feel comparatively little interest. Let Congress and the sword untie the complicated knot they have made.

DISINTERRING THE DEAD PAST.—Last week, a citizen of this place received from Kemp P. Battle, Esq., Raleigh, a communication making inquiry if a man by the name of John Hoover was hanged in this county, in 1840, for the murder of a negro woman, and if not, why? We suppose that Mr. Battle acted under Military directions in making the inquiry. The following is the history of the case, as detailed to us by an eye witness: A negro woman, belonging to John Hoover, was said to have died and was buried, suspicion of foul play was aroused in the minds of the neighbors, and the body was disinterred by John H. McLaughlin and others, and upon examination it was ascertained that the woman had been murdered. Mr. McLaughlin, being a magistrate, took Hoover in charge and brought him to Statesville, where a preliminary examination took place and Hoover was committed to jail. On the way to town, Hoover offered Mr. M. $2,000, or any other amount of money he might name, to allow him to escape, but the offer was rejected with that scorn which none but an incorruptible man, like our old friend, can bestow. Hoover was tried at the ensuing term of the Superior Court for Iredell, and hanged in 1840. Hoover was a monied man, but his wealth could not save him from the penalty due for an infamous crime. But why this investigation concerning a matter that occurred twenty-eight years ago? What right has the military power to extend its jurisdiction to the epoch of a past age, in a State that was, at least, then sovereign, if not now? And who instigated the movement? Who was the informer? Who hoped to subserve some political end, by raking from the graves of mouldering years, like a hyena, the bones of victim and murderer! We can well guess who. Billy Holden, thou art the man!

Our friend of the Statesville American unwittingly places Mr. Battle in a very false position in the foregoing. A little reflection would have convinced him that Mr. Battle could not have been made the channel of Military communication in a matter of this sort. The facts are simply these:

Gov. Worth, some short time since, received a letter from a gentleman in New York, who stated that he had accepted a wager, tendered him, doubtless, by some purblind Radical, who had asserted that, prior to 1861, no white man had ever been hung in North Carolina for the murder of a negro. Mr. Battle, on looking over some volumes of the Supreme Court Reports, saw detailed the cases of Hoover and Robbins, both of whom had been sentenced to be hanged for the killing of negroes. He, thereupon, as a matter of accommodation to the New York gentleman, and with a view to the vindication of the State in this regard, wrote a private letter to the Sheriff of Iredell, propounding the interrogatory specified in the above extract from the American. This is all, friend Drake. And the New York Redical has lost his money, and been satisfied, we hope, that crime, by whomsoever committed, whether by high or low, white or black, has always been punished in North Carolina, under that old and admirable Judiciary system of ours, which has just been uprooted by designing demagogues and ignorant adventurers.

THE NEW YORK Herald accounts for Beast Butler's present energy, and the incarceration of Wooley, on the ground that he has an unquenchable curiosity in regard to the whereabouts of money that seems not to have any particular owner. He sees that there is stealing on hand, and feels uneasy while he is not in. It adds: "What Butler wants is the money. Give him that, or only give him a hint where it is and let all the interested parties seem not to see him for a few minutes, and Wooley may go free at once."

THE CHARLESTON Mercury, speaking of the most extraordinary and deplorable action of Gen. Canby, in appointing a majority of ignorant negroes on the Board of Aldermen of that City, says:

"We think we do not exaggerate, when we state that yesterday was the most exciting day in Charleston, since the close of the war. Nothing that has been decreed, enacted, or ordered heretofore, seemed to bring home so entirely to the heart of every one the mournful fact of our subjugation, as the wholesale turning out of office of some of the best men our people had chosen to conduct the affairs of our city, and the substitution of such others in their stead."

STATE SUMMARY.

The Commencement exercises of North Carolina College, at Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus Co., took place on Wednesday and Thursday last. The exercises, as described by the Charlotte Times, were of a pleasing and elevated character. The annual Literary address was delivered by R. P. Waring, Esq., of Charlotte.

The Post Commandant at Wilmington issued an order, on Saturday, requiring all County and Municipal offices to be closed during the Memorial exercises at the Federal Cemetery. Such compulsory respect is the greatest insult that could be offered to the brave dead.

Bart. Fuller, Esq., of Fayetteville, visited Washington, last week, in the interests of Capt. Tolar and his fellow prisoners. The Wilmington Star says that, "in consequence of a pressure in the Executive office, he was unable to see the President, but had an interview with his Private Secretary, who informed Mr. Fuller, that the President felt a deep interest in the case, and would give it his early attention. We have every reason to hope that Capt. Tolar will soon be at liberty."

A revival of religion is now in progress in the Fifth Street Methodist Church, in Wilmington. The services are conducted by Rev. S. D. Peeler, Pastor of the Church, assisted by Rev. John N. Andrews, Chaplain of the Seamen's Bethel.

The sum realized by the ladies of Fayetteville from the chances taken in the Memorial Quilt, recently raffled in that town, together with the sale of ice cream and cakes on the occasion, is $465. The noble ladies may well feel proud of their success.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) was the Marshal of the Federal Memorial ceremonies in Wilmington, on Saturday last.

C. W. Ford, of Baltimore, having read, in the Norfolk Journal, an extract saying that there was great suffering in North Carolina, sends to the Editor of that paper a contribution towards any fund of relief. The Editor announces that all similar contributions will be thankfully received by him, and forwarded to gentlemen in this State who will properly attend to their distribution. Kind and commendable, both in Mr. Ford and the Journal.

An enlargement of St. James' Church, (Episcopal,) Wilmington, is spoken of.—The rapid growth of the membership of the Church renders this necessary.

The graves of the North Carolina soldiers, in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, at the recent Memorial anniversary, were decked with flowers sent for the purpose by the ladies of Greensboro'. The contributors were: Mrs. A. P. Eckle, Mrs. Lyndon Swain, Mrs. R. W. Glenn, Miss Eugene Edwards, Miss Clara Edwards, Miss Mary Morehead, Mrs. J. B. Balsey, Mrs. Seymore Steel, Mrs. Jessie H. Lindsey, Mrs. Letitia Walker, Miss Ellen Westbrook, Mrs. Cyrus P. Mendenhall, Mrs. William Swan, Mrs. B. H. Lambert.

The "Black Crook" is in Wilmington.—It is also expected in this city, in a few days.

We commend the subjoined observations of the Newbern Journal of Commerce upon an important subject to the consideration of our farmers generally. There is no climate in the country better adapted to the successful cultivation of hay than that of most parts of North Carolina:

"Let any one visit our wharves and see the large quantity of hay brought from New York, Baltimore and Philadelphia by every steamer and vessel which reaches this place from those cities, and we would suppose the question would suggest itself, cannot all this hay be raised in North Carolina? It is stated that the hay crop of New York is worth as much as the cotton crop of the South. Every bale of hay brought to North Carolina takes out of the State (never perhaps to return) at least three dollars and fifty cents, including freight. With the slightest effort on the part of one hundred farmers in Craven county, ten thousand bales of hay could easily be raised. Cannot one hundred be found who, this Fall, will put five acres of land in grasses? If so, the above quantity will be raised in Craven County alone."

Our friend Drake, of the Statesville American, who recently paid a visit to Raleigh, was delighted, of course, with the accommodations of Blair, at the Yarborough House. He says that "to visit Raleigh, and not stop with Mr. Blair, is to forego the chief attraction of the City of Oaks, with all its other noticeable objects."

Carl Brown, the celebrated Portrait Painter, of this City, is at present in Charlotte, at the request of several gentlemen, who desired to secure his artistic services.

We acknowledge our obligations for a copy of the "Second Annual Report of the Baltimore Association of Friends, to advise and assist Friends of the Southern States." It has much to say of the praiseworthy operations of the Association in North Carolina—particularly of its Institution at Springfield, on the dividing line of Guilford and Randolph counties, for the education of teachers. Connected with the Normal School, as we have heretofore had occasion to notice, is a model farm, which is developing fine results. The Report says:

"A review of the present condition of our Society in North Carolina, as compared with what it was when our labors began, shows so great an advance in the right direction, that those whose hearts and hands have been engaged in the work can acknowledge that the rich blessing of our Heavenly Father has rested upon their feeble efforts, crowning them with unexpected results, and filling their hearts with thankfulness and gratitude. To Him alone be the praise."

The Editor of the Charlotte Democrat saw recently, on the road between Dallas and Stowe's Factory, an old man (Mr. Robert Beard) and his wife in the field hoeing corn. Mr. Beard's age is 92 years and his wife 91. He walks every Sunday three miles to Church. If such old people as these can make a living by work, is it not a shame, (says the Democrat,) for young men to be wasting their time in idleness and talking about "hard times?"

The Charlotte Democrat says that the Gold Mines of Gaston (five or six) are being worked by native and Northern capitalists, and are yielding handsome profits, and spreading some money among the people. All enterprises of the sort necessarily benefit the community in which they are located. No county in the State has richer mineral resources than Gaston.

At Turnersburg, N. C., on the 31st of March, by the Rev. Dr. Chase, Miss JULIA L. TURNER, third daughter of Wilfred Turner, Esq., to Dr. ROBT. H. WYCHE, of Haywood, N. C.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.
DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.
DIVIDENDS 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and sworn statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10 41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7 17, and in 1867, $4 90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $3,655,309; in 1866, $3,523,376, and in 1867, $7,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $871,970.39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287 64, making a grand total of $792,207 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to the income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, three comparisons of official statements plainly show.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 13
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 13
EQUITABLE	1 05
MANHATTAN	1 26
	1 03

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.
These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—An old established Wholesale Drug Store, or a half interest in the same, in Baltimore, for sale: Address Box 317, Baltimore.

"Jimp:" Call every night at 9 o'clock. Next door to Royster's Confectionery establishment.

Grain Cradles and Grass Scythes: James M. Towles.

Official History of the War between the States, by Hon. Alex. H. Stephens: Subscriptions received by James M. Towles.

FEDERAL COURT.—This tribunal is gradually getting under weigh with the accumulation of business before it. It will probably be in session three weeks.

In addition to the members of the Bar in attendance, from a distance, mentioned by us on yesterday, we observe the following arrivals, viz: Hons. Z. B. Vance, J. H. Wilson, and R. Y. McAden, Gen. Rufus Barringer, M. L. McCorkle, Jno. A. Gilmer, Jr., Peter Adams, Jr., H. R. Bryan, W. H. Bailey, Giles Leitch and S. T. Williams, Esqs., and Cols. Robert Strange, W. A. Jenkins and S. J. Person.

EX-GOV. SEYMOUR.—This distinguished gentleman left on yesterday afternoon, for the University. During his brief stay in the City, he was called upon by many of our citizens. He made the most favorable impression upon all, by his warm and friendly expressions of sympathy for our people, in their oppressed and humiliated condition.

BLAIR.—A number of distinguished gentlemen dined with Gov. Seymour, by invitation of Mr. Blair, at the Yarborough, on yesterday. The dinner was gotten up in Blair's best style, and, it is needless to say, was superb,—embracing every delicacy of the season. He has no superior as a caterer anywhere. That is literally true, and is the concurrent testimony of all who have sojourned with him.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—We have before us the Catalogue of this College (Robert E. Lee's College) for the Collegiate year ending June, 1868. The total number of students in attendance during the year was 410,—embracing representatives from twenty States, with one from far-off MEXICO. The number of students from North Carolina is 11. Among these, we observe the name of our promising young townsman, Lewin W. Barringer, eldest son of the Hon. Daniel M. Barringer.

VIOLATION OF THE REVENUE LAW.—The following persons have been brought to this city and lodged in jail, to await trial before the Federal Court, for the offences specified, viz: A. L. Spekes, Iredell Co.; Nat. Gaither, negro, Iredell; Jno. Fletcher, Wilkes; Jere Edwards, negro, Wilkes; Jacob Dobbin, negro, Wilkes; Andrew Rine, negro, Gaston; Fletcher Young, Forsythe; Joseph Eller, Buncombe; Haywood Marby, Randolph;—all of the foregoing for illicit distilling; and Nat. Hockaday, negro, Wake, for larceny.

"IGNORANCE IS BLISS."—A plain countryman from one of the upper Counties, who has doubtless lived in some quiet spot, far away from the jar and discord of the times, went into the National Bank, in this City, on yesterday, and very soberly enquired of one of the officers: "What are bonds worth?" "What kind of bonds?" asked the officer. "Why, coupon bonds," said the simple hearted man. The officer replied, "Have you the bond with you? If I knew what kind of coupon bond, I could tell you." The old gentleman pulled out of his pocket a package, which he carefully unwrapped, when, to the surprise of the officer, he took out a Confederate $500 coupon bond! The officer frankly told him, "Your bond is worthless." The countryman looked astonished. Sadness came over his countenance, and, with mingled doubt and disappointment, he looked to his comrade, who had come in with him, as if he would enquire, "Can that be so?" His comrade told him that when he saw the word "Confederate" on a bond, he might know it had "gone up." The old gentleman turned and went out, doubtless more confirmed, than ever, in the fleeting and uncertain hopes founded upon "sublunary affairs."

THE DISTRICT CENTRAL EXECUTIVE Committee of the Democracy in Columbia, S. C., have prepared a handsome certificate to be issued to all the colored members of the Club. In Savannah this has been adopted with great success. No colored man showing this certificate will be out of employment long.

Brownlow said last week: "I am very feeble, but there's a heap of devilment left in me yet."

MEETING OF EDITORS.

The Tarboro' Southerner has suggested the propriety of a Convention of the Conservative and Democratic editors of this State, to be held in this city, on Thursday, the 18th of June. We think that good may result from such a meeting, and, therefore, have seconded the motion of our cotemporary. There are twenty-eight or thirty Conservative and Democratic presses in the State. On the great issues involved in the controversy between the Radical and Democratic parties, there is no division or difference of opinion among them. They are fully in accord and sympathy with the objects of the National Democratic Convention, which meets in New York on the 4th of July next, and all of them, without an exception, will support the nominees of that Convention, in opposition to the nominees of the Chicago Radical Convention, should North Carolina have a voice in the Presidential election.

It is fit, therefore, in advance of the action of the Convention at New York, that those editors in the State, who are thus agreed, should have a consultation and fix upon definite rules of action, so as to secure entire harmony of co-operation. Such a meeting might also be rendered of use to the craft in matters of business and of general benefit. The scarcity of money and the expense of travel are the only drawbacks, but those burdens may be rendered lighter by the liberality of the Railroads, &c., which they have not been backward in exhibiting towards the press. We, therefore, extend a cordial [illegible] to our co-laborers, amid the tribulations and difficulties which environ us, in the hope that good may come of our proposed conference.

CONSERVATIVE ARMY AND NAVY UNION.—A large and enthusiastic Conservative meeting was held last evening at the rooms of the above association. The President of the organization, Col. Allabach, presided, and after the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, on motion the routine of business was suspended, and spirited and earnest addresses were made by Hon. G. W. Morgan, of Ohio, and Hon. A. G. Burr, of Illinois, on the result of the impeachment trial and the consequences to flow therefrom, and on the unprincipled course pursued by the Radical leaders. Andrew Johnson had been consistent throughout his entire political career, but inconsistency and duplicity had marked the course of the men who are endeavoring to oust him from power. Ben. Wade, who is now shouting the praises of Grant, was the chairman of a committee who waited on President Lincoln and requested him to remove Grant for drunkenness at Shiloh and Island No. 10; and these men had persistently turned a deaf ear to the claims of the white soldier to listen to and reward the ignorant negro.—Wash. Express, 30th.

THE SEVEN VOTE AGAINST THE PREAMBLE IN GEN. SCHOFIELD'S CASE.—Forney's Chronicle of Saturday says: "The Senate in executive session yesterday took up the nomination of Gen. Schofield to be Secretary of War, vice Hon. E. M. Stanton. The debate on the nomination was confined mainly to a preamble and resolution, offered on Thursday, substantially to the effect that 'whereas the order of the President removing Mr. Stanton was unconstitutional and illegal, but Secretary Stanton having withdrawn from the office, therefore resolved that the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination of John M. Schofield.' The debate on the preamble occupied nearly the entire time of the session, and on agreeing thereto the vote was similar to that on the impeachment articles, the Republican Senators who voted against the articles pursuing the same course with regard to the preamble. The preamble and resolution were, however, passed by a large majority vote."

THADDEUS STEVENS ON THE BIBLE.—The Lancaster, Penn., Intelligencer, published at the home of Thad. Stevens, thus alludes to a phase of his character, which will be exceedingly gratifying to the pious preachers of the gospel who have been his special enemies and antagonists. It says:

"During all his life Thaddeus Stevens has openly scoffed at the Christian religion. A few years since, while trying a case at a town in another part of the State, he and some other lawyers were conversing one evening, when one of the party adduced the Bible as authority for some statement he had made. 'Oh,' said Mr. Stevens, 'the Bible is no authority. It is nothing but the obsolete history of a barbarous people!'"

GOV. WORTH.—While in Raleigh, last week, we spent a pleasant half hour in conversation with our venerated Governor upon various topics, and felt edified by his frank manner and freedom from ostentation, which in some besets official dignity. Gov. Worth is one of the people, and with him the humble and the great, rich and poor, alike, share his consideration,—the best index of a kind heart and noble mind. We were pleased to observe that his health seemed much improved. May his useful life be long spared to counsel and serve his native State!—Statesville American.

When a certain New York banker drives from the boat, at Staten Island, to his handsome country seat, and arrives at the porter's lodge, out jumps a little "tiger"—as the juvenile groom is called—like a cuckoo, opens the gate and stands like an automaton figure with one finger at the rim of his hat until the carriage has driven through. Outside the gate stands a crowd of ragged children, who daily stand with open eyes and mouth admiring this edifying performance. This is called living in "style."—N. Y. Mail.

One of the best political caricatures of the day is the "dying impeachment gladiator." Ben. Butler lies prostrate in the arena, with his broken sword, and a most demoralized countenance—while President Johnson is seen retiring with a heavy spoon over his shoulder, with which he has brained the hero of Big Bethel.

Madeline Smith, the woman who murdered lover fourteen years ago, in Scotland, resides on Lexington avenue, New York, is the wife of a wealthy merchant, has several children, goes to the opera, and to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Speaking of Anna Dickinson, a New York critic says: "The lecture was a very clever presentation of untenable propositions; but to hear a pretty woman pounding away at logic is very like a canary bird splitting his throat with Haydn's oratorio of 'The Creation.'"

An exchange has the following good thing: We yesterday heard a couple of colored guests discussing the question of impeachment, when one of them exclaimed: "What de use ob 'peaching ole Andy—he'd veto it!"

A. T. Stewart returns a net income this year of $667,499.

RECEPTION AT GEN. GRANT'S—HOW A NIGGER GUEST WAS TREATED.

"The great feature of the evening, however, was the presence of the negro delegate from North Carolina. His name is J. H. Harris, a delegate in the Chicago Convention from the Fourth District of North Carolina, late a member of the North Carolina Constitutional Convention, a candidate for Congress, (he declined, however, in favor of a carpet-bagger,) and now a member of the committee to apprise the Radical nominees of their good luck at Chicago.

He was introduced, of course, by the immense manager Washburne, but neither Gen. Grant, Colfax, the ladies present, nor any one of the great Radical Moguls, seemed to know Brother Harris. The company at one time were nearly all crowded in the back parlor, while Harris was observed standing solitary and alone in a corner of the front parlor room. There he remained for over an hour—the observed of no one except the reporters, who proceeded to take side notes of Brother Harris's solitary condition. It was a fact to which many can testify, that neither Grant nor Colfax, save at the introduction, took any notice of Harris during the evening. He was like our Jake on a picnic, "not fixed"—or poor Sambo at a dance, "without Dinah being dar."

Gen. Hawley, Gen. Logan nor any of the Radical guns deigned to notice this practical innovation of black upon white. He was not noticed by the politicians, and only pitied by the reporters. He "stuck," however, remaining until after supper; secured a place at the table, and, like all true breeds of the African type, did full justice to ices, berries, and sweetmeats, generally. He finally retired, unhonored and unsung. Alas, Sambo, mark thy coming fate!"—Wash. Evening Express, 30th.

CONGRESSIONAL DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, May 26, 1868.

The undersigned requests the chairmen of all State, county, city, township, or ward Democratic and Conservative committees, associations, or clubs, to furnish the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee with the names of their associations, for reference during the pending Presidential campaign. Documents will be furnished by this committee, on orders accompanied by money, at the following rates:

For sixteen page documents, in wrappers, and franked, $12 per thousand.

For eight page documents, in wrappers and franked, $7 per thousand, or at the same rate for a smaller number. In particular cases they will be furnished gratuitously.

Communications may be addressed to Hon. Samuel J. Randall, M. C., Washington City.

By Order, J. R. DOOLITTLE.
Chairman Congressional Dem. Ex. Committee.
SAMUEL J. RANDALL, Secretary.

One carpet bagger has been found who paid his hotel bill, and gave the darkey, who blacked his boots, a three cent piece. His portrait has been taken, and will be presented to Congress soon, if not sooner.

TO LAND OWNERS.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will subdivide their lands the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation or as ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 200 acres so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State an industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other States and is said to be working finely.

This Company was chartered by our Legislature of 1866. Land owners will please address me for particulars at Reidsville, N. C.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—CONGRESS, &C.

WASHINGTON, June 2, P. M

SENATE.—The Judiciary Committee reported the bill, which recently passed the House admitting North and South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana and Georgia, with amendments; which comes up to-morrow.

Edmunds reported a bill conditionally excluding from the electoral College the votes of States lately in rebellion; which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Sherman's bill regarding currency was called up.

Cameron favored a postponement of the whole subject of finance and currency to next year.

It was postponed till to-morrow.

A bill modifying the Court of Claims passed.—It allows the government to appeal cases to the Supreme Court. The Court may stay the payment of judgment, within two years after giving it, on being satisfied that fraud or injustice has been done the United States. Loyalty must be proved affirmatively, and voluntary residence in the section where rebels hold sway may be considered prima facie evidence of disloyalty.

The Deficiency Appropriation Bill passed.

The Bill continuing the Freedmen's Bureau was up. An amendment allowing agents to sell property occupied as school houses, &c., was adopted.

The Bill was postponed.

Executive session. Adjourned.

HOUSE:—After unimportant business, the Morgan and Delano election case was discussed all day. Adjourned.

The latest figures elect Bowen, Radical, Mayor by eighty three votes.

The following is Mr. Edmunds' resolution:

Resolved, That the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas, respectively, shall not be entitled to representation in the electoral College for the choice of President or Vice-President of the United States, and no electoral vote shall be received or counted from any of such respective States, unless, at the time prescribed by law for the choice of electors, the people of such [illegible] shall, pursuant to the acts of Congress in that behalf, have since the fourth day of March, 1867, adopted a Constitution of State Government, shall have been organized and shall be in peaceful operation, and such States shall have also become entitled to representation in Congress, pursuant to the acts of Congress in that behalf.

Schofield has ordered the guards from the War Department.

Schofield participated in full Cabinet to-day.

The Senate rejected Mr. Stanbery as Attorney General.

Governor Bullock and Messrs. Blodgett, Caldwell and Farrow, of Georgia, are here, looking after reconstruction.

It is stated, on the authority of Mr. Reynolds, member elect from Alabama, that the Senate Judiciary Committee have erased Alabama from the Omnibus admission Bill.

FROM RICHMOND—GEN. STONEMAN ASSUMES COMMAND OF THE SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT—TRIAL OF MR. DAVIS AGAIN POSTPONED.

RICHMOND, June 2, P. M.

General Stoneman issued an order, to-day, taking command. He directs all orders heretofore issued to be strictly observed, and all military and civil officers to continue the performance of their duties.

Chief Justice Chase arrived to-day, and is a guest of Judge H. G. Bond. He will preside to-morrow, and probably remain until after the trial of some important cases.

The Davis trial will be postponed until October, by agreement, as already stated, of the Counsel.

Among the new witnesses summoned in the case are Gens. Hartranft, Wilcox and Sharp, of the Union army, and Gen. Fitz Lee, Cooper and Gordon of the Confederate army. Burton N. Harrison, Private Secretary of Mr. Davis, is also on the witness list.

[From Demorest's Young America.]

THE LITTLE PEOPLE.

A dreary place would be this earth,
Were there no little people in it;
The song of life would lose its mirth,
Were there no children to begin it.

No little forms like buds to grow,
And make the admiring heart surrender;
No little hands on breast and brow
To keep the thrilling love-chords tender.

No babe within our arms to leap,
No little feet toward slumber tending;
No little knee in prayer to bend,
Our lips the sweet words lending.

What would the ladies do for work,
Were there no pants or jackets tearing;
No tiny dresses to embroider,
No cradle for their watchful caring;

No rosy boys at wintry morn,
With satchel to the school house hasting;
No merry shouts as home they rush,
No precious morsel for their tasting?

Tall, grave, grown people at the door,
Tall, grave, grown people at the table;
The men on business all intent,
The dames lugubrious as they're able.

The sterner souls will get more stern,
Unfeeling nature more inhuman,
And man to stoic coldness turn,
And woman would be less than woman.

For to that clime toward which we reach,
Through time's mysterious dim unfolding,
The little ones, with cherub smile,
Are still our Father's face beholding.

Life's song, indeed, would lose its charm,
Were there no babies to begin it;
A doleful place this world would be,
Were there no little people in it.

THE BUD WORM.

Our friend Dr. Buie has been investigating the natural history and habits of this destructive little insect, with complete success. In April last he found a stalk of corn with the heart cut out by a bud worm, and the insect itself was buried about two inches in the ground beside the stalk. The Dr. took the worm and placed it in a glass jar, one-fourth filled with moist earth. Young stalks of corn, cabbage leaves and turnip tops were placed in this jar. The worm ate of each. After every eating the worm changed his appearance. It changed first to the "cut worm," which has been generally regarded as a different insect.—Its next form was that of the "collard worm," its color from black turning to green, and its head disappearing. After eating the bug would return and remain in the earth. After this last change he went into the heart of the stalk of corn, until it was entirely destroyed, when becoming very unwieldy, it wollered, rather than burrowed, in the ground.

It remained in this state for five days, and on the sixth it had entirely shed its covering and was a fully developed moth, having four wings, the outer ones dark and the under ones light. Its appearance to us, as we saw it yesterday, is the same as the ordinary "candle moth," and is, beyond doubt, the same species of insect.

Dr. Buie will continue his investigations, and when completed will give the benefit of his discoveries to the public. Other insects which infest our gardens are also receiving his attention.—Wil. Journal.

PITHY SAYINGS FROM PRENTICE.

Ben. Butler telegraphed to New Hampshire that Ben. Wade would come with the 'apple blows.' But the latter Ben may wait till hot weather and come with the fly-blows.

Gen. Grant is said by his father to have had a marvellous knack at teaching a horse to pace. He had better try to teach the spavined, foundered, wind-broken hack he is now mounted on to mend his pace.

Forney says, that there is a "terrific excitement in Maine on account of Senator Fessenden's course." Terrific? Whom, pray, does it terrify? The Democrats or the Radicals?

There is no need of the trouble and expense of elections in the South. The satraps can declare before elections who shall hold office just as well as after.

The Democratic party hasn't the ghost of a chance of success.—Forney.

That's because its chance, unlike your party's, isn't dead.

Grant is on neither side of one-half of the questions of the day, and on both sides of the other half.

The radical leaders who are supposed to control Congress, have lost all control of themselves.

A good many lives of General Grant are in progress. One such life as he has led should be quite enough.

A CURE FOR AGUE AND FEVER.—A friend of ours, one morning this week, seeing an old negro woman beating about very energetically among a lot of weeds, was very anxious to find out what she was looking for, and, approaching her, the following colloquy ensued:

"What's the matter, aunt Lucy—what have you lost?"

"Nothing, massa Tom—I'se only looking for a toad."

"Why, what do you want with a toad?"

"Why, you see my son has de chills, and dis is his chill day, and I wants to ketch a toad and put it under a pot and make him walk round it three times and cure him.—It'll cure him—I know it will."

Our friend's curiosity being satisfied he left.

No doubt this is a most excellent remedy. We take pleasure in recommending it to our down-country cotemporaries who may be suffering from ague.—Wadesboro Argus.

NEGRO CONJURING.—A negro, on the plantation of Holmes, bought some calico a few days ago and got a negro woman to make it into a spread for her bed. When it was made and slept under for the first time, the owner became sick, and suspicion of conjury fell on the maker. It was said that the conjurer blew her breath three times in the middle of the spread. The excitement on the plantation was intense.

On Sunday the spread was brought out and solemnly burned in the presence of several thousand free and independent voters. On yesterday, the conjured woman walked to town through the mud to give ten dollars to the medicine man who cast out the evil spirits, and the woman, who did the conjuring, also came with her friends to be cleansed of the unclean spirit. It will cost her also ten dollars to be absolved. In the meantime the plantation is in a high state of excitement, and no work is done.—Montgomery, (Ala.) Mail, April 21.

AN INTELLIGENT VOTER.—A colored voter, one who believes that the Radical party are the friends of the negro because they voted by 30,000 majority in Wisconsin the other day to keep his color from voting, went up to the Augusta city polls to vote, but was directed to go down stairs, where he would find a poll. After some time he came back and said: "Boss, I hunted all about down stairs, and couldn't find no pole. I nebber seen nuffin but a lamp post down dar!" He was further instructed, and so voted for the so-called "colored man's friends." Lo! the poor negro!

New Spring and Summer Goods for 1868.

CHEAP FOR CASH.

LOOK OUT FOR A CREECH!

JUST RECEIVED, $15,000 worth of new Spring and Summer Goods, which must, at all events, be sold within the next sixty days, if possible—If you want

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

I have a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, and universally admitted, that to buy your goods. This can be, and is substantiated daily, by hundreds.

CREECH'S IS THE PLACE

If you want Cassimeres, Tweeds, Kentucky Jeans, Cotton and Linen Goods of all descriptions, and suitable for gentlemen, boys and children's wear, CREECH'S is the place to look for them.

At Low Prices,

Why, you may go up one side of Fayetteville Street and down the other; yes, and then the cross streets, and you will be bound to come to the conclusion that 'CREECH'S is the place you had better do your trading. If you want

LADIES' BONNETS,

trimmed or untrimmed, CREECH'S is the place to get them. If you wish to purchase any style of

LADIES, MISSES OR CHILDREN'S HATS,

don't buy until you have seen CREECH'S, or you will miss a great bargain, as he has one of the largest and most beautiful assortments in the City. If you are looking for

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you stop at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no House in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on B. Smith's corner.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

North Carolina Mining Property for Sale in Baltimore.

VERY VALUABLE GOLD MINE AT AUCTION.

WILL BE SOLD, BY VIRTUE OF AUTHORITY vested in the undersigned, at the Exchange Sales Rooms, in the City of Baltimore, on Tuesday, the 23d day of June, 1868, at one o'clock, P. M., all the property of the Baltimore & Montgomery Mining Company, better known as the

on the Uharie river, in Montgomery county, North Carolina, containing about 700 ACRES OF LAND, with all its equipments, consisting of two Steam Engines, one of 10 horse and the other of 25 horse power, Pumps, two round Buddles, 16 feet diameter, 3 Washers with Rockers and Sluice-boxes, buildings for office, store and superintendent, a large Boarding-house, Barn, Stables, Blacksmith Shop, and about 20 small houses for miners, &c.

This mine is known as one of the most valuable in this country, and is efficiently developed, to a depth of upwards of 150 feet, so as to justify extensive operations; the vein is composed of argillaceous slate, and forms an auriferous bed of from 10 to 12 feet in thickness, carrying very rich strong veins of free gold in its centre.

Thorough and reliable examinations and reports have been made by Prof Chas. T. Jackson, of Boston, Prof. Genth, of Philadelphia, and the late Prof. Hanssen, who all agree and represent this mining property of great intrinsic value.

Terms to be made known on the day of sale.

For further information as regards reports, &c., apply to

GEORGE S. BROWN,
No 153, Baltimore St., Baltimore.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and, if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
